

Scotch Plains Times

...and Fanwood Independent

VOL. 5 NO. 22

SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD, N. J. THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1963

10 CENTS A COPY

County R

To Sweep Otherwise

DUMPING AREA DEMANDED

See Story Page 2-

IT'S OFFICIAL: The township of Scotch Plains is no longer Scotch in name only, for last Saturday it became the first township ever to be welcomed into a Clan. William Heaney, Chief of the Clan Mackenzie, made Mayor Norman Lacombe an honorary member and adopted the whole town into the Clan at ceremonies held in Plainfield. Mr. Heaney is presenting the "Order of the Scottish Clans" to Mayor Lacombe while bagpiper Glenn Michaelis of Scotch Plains does the honors.