

Scotch Plains Times

...and Fanwood Independent

VOL. 5 NO. 21

SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD, N.J., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1964

10 CENTS A COPY

Mr. Chas. Darway
2215 Lyde Pl.
Scotch Plains, N.J.

IN THIS ISSUE:

Lou Warshaw reviews the recent concert at which the Scotch Plains Community Choir presented Handel's "Messiah" ...and then goes on (from the sublime to the ridiculous) to discuss the annual consumption of the cocktail frankfurter at Christmas parties.

See Page 6

Endorse Candidates.....Pg.	2
Christmas Lights Provided.....Pg.	2
Talk of the Towns.....Pg.	4
All Things Considered.....Pg.	6
S.R.O.....Pg.	8
BeCu.....Pg.	10

Christmas Season Starts

THE LIGHTS GO ON IN SCOTCH PLAINS. A view of the shopping area looking South, minutes after the switch was thrown by the Mayor.

(Staff Photo)

MAYOR PETERSON (INSET) throws the switch which lights up the downtown area with gay streams of Christmas hangings. (Staff Photo)