

Scotch Plains Times

...and Fanwood Independent

SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD, N.J., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1965

10 CENTS A COPY

IN THIS ISSUE:

TALK OF THE TOWNS.....PAGE 4
ALL THINGS CONSIDERED.....PAGE 6
EDITORIAL.....PAGE 7
IN WHITE AMERICA.....PAGE 7
S.R.O.PAGE 8
SCHOOL BULLETIN BOARD.....PAGE 24

A lady discovers a talent for poetry (See "A Lament" on page 7) a gentleman takes issue with "dog-laws (also on page 7) and Ruth Gilbert gives us a Profile of the Whitcombs, a husband and wife writing team. (See page 6)

Help For The Blind

PETER PAN AND FRIENDS. Kyle Ignar, left as the elusive Tinker Bell, Arlene Karby as Wendy and Joanne Occhippinti as John listen with amusement to the "tall tales" of Peter Pan, played by Lynn Merkel. The talented youngsters presented the play for the benefit of St. Joseph's School For The Blind under the sponsorship of the Scotch Plains Junior Woman's Club. (See story on page 3)

(Staff Photo)