BALLPLAYERS VISIT SHEA

On Thursday, July 1st, 345 Minor, Midget and Junior League boys in the Scotch Plains Recreation Commission's baseball program had a day's outing to Shea Stadium and saw the New York Mets beat the Cincinnati Reds, 5-1.

Accompanying the boys were 20 managers and recreation personnel as supervisors. Six buses were used to transport the group, which left from the recreation plaza at the rear of Town Hall at 11 a.m. and returned at 7 p.m., with all safe and accounted for. The tickets and buses were arranged for by the Recreation Commission and the cost for the boys was only 25¢.

To enable the boys to see as many landmarks as possible, various routes to the stadium were used, including over the Verranzano-Narrows Bridge, the George Washington Bridge and through the Holland and Lincoln Tunnels. The boys were able to see the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building, LaGuardia Airport and some of the New York World's Fair grounds.

Although the boys were advised to bring lunches, the enormous amounts of hot dogs, peanuts and cokes consumed at the game were absolutely amazing.

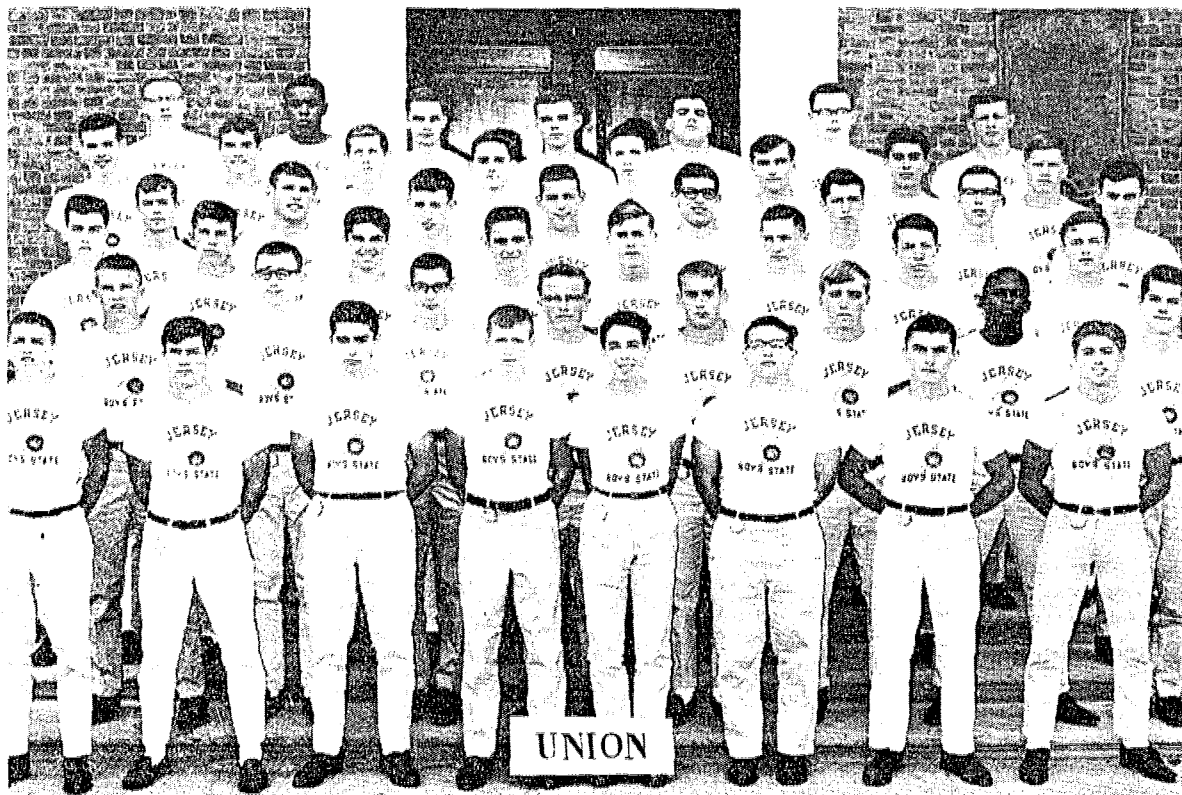

This was the first such trip sponsored by the Recreation Commission for the members of the baseball program and it was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

And the stands rang with the Happy Cheers of the Scotch Plains Minor, Midget and Junior League Players.
