

Scotch Plains Times

...and Fanwood Independent

VOL. 6 NO. 66

SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD, N.J., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1965

10 CENTS A COPY

Fanwood Gulch Robbery

Some varmints robbed a barrel a' gold off the 7:45 from Junction. Lots a' citizens packen' shootin' irons rounded up the bandits and hussled 'em into the Gulch Saloon for a kangaroo court. After tellin, the jurors to find 'em guilty, the Hanging Judge gave the varmints a fair trial. They were 'bout to be hanged when a bunch of injuns broke in. They scalp-the Mayor, shot the Judge, stole the gold and took off for the Plains. The skit was staged by the Plainfield and Fanwood-Scotch Plains Jaycees.

