When, a movie at the Cranford Bikeway hosts
The Club Bene is located on Route 35 in Sayerville, New Jersey. This is a very picturesque area with a dynamic presence. It was necessary for Miss Klein to take it upon herself to move into Felix's apartment. Manolo's comedy looks at the unlikely relationship of the two characters Doris and the prudish Felix. In a rather cliché position as the fiancée for the star, Elaine Hausman turns in a polished performance and commands the stage with a dynamic presence. It was necessary for Miss Klein to use a script in the third act of last year's production, but did not deter from her performance. The Bene production was thoroughly enjoyable and is sure to please the audience. The show must go on, and the Club Bene is showing that they are capable of putting on a good performance. The Bene will be postmortal, but the theater found a last minute replacement for the show. It seemed as though the show would close for at least a week, but the theater found a last minute replacement for the show. Cranford Bikeway hosts Cancer Crusade Bike-a-thon

A 10-speed bicycle, backpack and other bike-a-thon prizes will be among the items to be auctioned at the American Cancer Society Bike-a-thon that will take place on September 15. The cyclists Richard Ferdinand and Kevin Rouson will be among the first to finish their journey of Cranford on July 15. All participants will receive an American Cancer Society Bike-a-thon button when they pick up their sponsor forms, and will also be awarded to entrants who register at the Cranford Bikeway for the event that they will take place from July 1 at 9:00 p.m. on Sunday, July 15.

We encourage riders of all ages to come out and support the cause, and welcome Rick and Kevin and their group to participate in the Cancer Crusade Bike-a-thon, said Lois Gannon, president of the American Cancer Society Union County Unit. "Their marvelous effort in alerting people to the warning signs of cancer and that to do so about them is a 3,500 mile tour across America deserves an equally marvellous turnout," Gannon added.
