BUDGET ADVISORY COMM. MEETS TO DISCUSS SCHOOL BUDGET

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education continues to work on providing the public an awareness of the relationship between the school budget program and effects in classrooms throughout the district.

The Budget Advisory Committee, consisting of board members, staff, students and key people in the community, has been meeting over winter to provide valuable input on the 1985-86 school budget.

This week, Board Secretary Richard Marshall reviewed the proposed budget for 1985-86 and invited comments from the committee on the proposed programs in the $22.8 million tentative budget.

CALLING ALL FAN. DOG OWNERS

Dog licenses are now available in Fanwood and must be purchased by all dog owners.

Licenses are available at the Borough Clerk's office at Borough Hall, 75 North Martine Avenue, from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Monday through Friday and at the Police Desk on Saturday from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M.

A veterinarian certificate proof of rabies shot must be presented at the time a license is issued, so everyone is urged to bring this with them in order to avoid having to make a second trip.

Mayoral appointments head S.P. Town Council meeting

By Sharon Pachler
Four mayoral appointments were announced at the Scotch Plains town council meeting Tuesday night. Mayor Gabriel Spera has appointed Craig Miller to the Recycling Committee (one year), Anthony Conti to Downtown Beautification (one year), Larry Newcombe to the Fanwood Railroad Parking Study and Patricia Flynn to the Senior Citizens Advisory Committee. In addition, Town Manager Tom Atkins appointed John Sicko to the Fire Department Auxiliary and Edward P. Busichio to the Recreation Commission for a term of five years.

An ordinance concerning the exchange of properties (five building lots will be effected) located on King St. with the cemetery was discussed. This ordinance was approved by the Planning Board. Present was Gus Bonavita, a resident of Frank Street and representing Mansa Inc., who was asking that the R1 zone be changed to an R2 zone. This ordinance was adopted on its' final reading. Pertaining to an ordinance to accept civil service job classification titles, Councilwoman Joan Papen stated that "every ten years, the civil service requests a job audit. Approximately 98% of the job classifications will remain the same." This ordinance was also adopted.

Two applications were approved by the council: the request by the Park Middle School Athletic Booster Organization to hold an off premise raffle on June 4 at Park Middle School and the request by the Mental Health Association of Union County to hold an off premise raffle on March 30 at Scotch Hill Golf Country Club.

A resolution was passed to approve the Highway Lighting Reimbursement Agreement with the State of N.J. D.O.T. This agreement refers to the reimbursement of Scotch Plains for lighting expenses paid for by the town.

An ordinance was introduced to install stop signs at Maple Hill Rd. and Hilltop Rd. and Woodside Rd. at Aldene Ave. A second ordinance was read that concerns an inter-municipal agreement with Edison Township. Ten houses are to be built in Edison; as their means of egress, Edison will be responsible for its' maintenance. Second and final readings will be heard for these two ordinances on February 12 at 8:30 PM. A resolution of November 20, 1984 concerning the setting aside of escrow funds for the installation of a water main on Clarks Lane was rescinded as the amount listed was incorrect. The total account necessary for the installation is $10,637.35. Please turn to page 3

DECA wins 64 awards at annual competition

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) began its annual competitions at the Central Region Competition and set all kinds of records winning a total of 64 awards, including 341 trophies - by far, DECA's most successful competition ever. Fifty four schools from Central N.J. and 1400 students competed at Ocean County College and were evaluated in competencies based on instruction in their Marketing & Distributive Education class or their on-the-job training which is part of the MDE program.

Senior Desiree Olivito led the way, for the 42 Scotch Plains/Fanwood students who competed, by winning four awards in the Finance & Credit event. Olivito, who is employed by Queen City Savings in Fanwood, won three 2nd place awards in the Performance Testing and 1st place overall in the Finance category. DECA President Frank Carvalho, employed by Lincoln Federal Savings in Scotch Plains, was a close second to Olivito winning three awards in the same event. Santanya Nelson won two awards in Finance, including a 1st in a Performance Testing. In the General Marketing area (evaluating students' understanding of economic concepts), Terry Walsh was a big winner with two awards including a 2nd place overall; Maria Salz, Toni Luzier, Candy Klein and Luke Kory all won two awards with Salz and Klein coming in 3rd overall. In the Food Marketing event, Tom Ruggiero and Janalyn Mashewske won two awards, including 3rd overall. Sue Dutter, with two awards, Michelle Di Francesco and Craig Dill all placed in this event.
