

Scotch Plains

THE TIMES

Serving Fanwood and Scotch Plains Since 1959

Fanwood

VOLUME 32-NUMBER 38

SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD, N.J.

SEPTEMBER 21, 1989

30 CENTS

Concerned citizens address Fan. Council

by Patricia R. Mundth Airplane noise, a ubiquitous problem throughout most of Union County was a topic of discussion at the Sept. 13 meeting of the Fanwood Borough Council. Fanwood residents and residents from surrounding communities addressed the Council as to the serious nature of the problem and asked for the Council's support in working toward a solution. Bob Ottman of Fanwood stated that Cranford has formed a noise coalition group which meets every Thursday. This group has representation from approximately 25 municipalities. He recommended continued calls and letters to the FAA and the Port Authority of N.Y. and N.J. demanding a change in the flight plan which went into effect on June 1. In response to Mr. Ottman, Deputy Mayor Maryann Connolly asked the Borough Secretary, Mrs. McGovern to make sure that the telephone numbers of the FAA and the Port Authority are posted on the Community Bulletin Board at the train station so that residents may have access to the phone numbers.

Marge Dugan, a representative from the Cranford Noise Coalition stated that since Hush I went into effect there has been no relief from the constant airplane noise. "Real estate values go
Continued on page 13

Village Mall Day in Westfield

The Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the second annual Village Mall this Saturday. The charming downtown will be closed to traffic to allow pedestrians the opportunity of sampling the finest Westfield has to offer.

The theme of this year's event is Toys and Fun for the Family - especially the luxurious toys for grown-ups. The streets will be lined with Corvettes, Jaguars, BMWs, and fun 4-wheel vehicles too. Kids will love the free face-painting, funny characters like Nicky and Missy Mouse, yummy pop-corn, instant dress-up photos, and balloons galore.

The Westfield Symphony Brass Quintet will again delight the crowd with performances from noon to 2 p.m. And the Presbyterian Church Handbell Choir is contributing entertainment earlier in the day which is scheduled to run from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. A special treat is in store for the young adults visiting Westfield when one of their own rock bands will perform downtown.
Continued on page 16

Special added attractions this year include a fantastic Fall Fashion Show set for two showings at 1 and 3 p.m. in front of the First Fidelity Bank at the corner of East Broad and Quimby Streets. Local models will sport a wide array of the many fine fashions available in Westfield. A photo and video contest has also been added this year to attract the talented amateur photographers and would-be filmmakers in the community. Photos, color and black and white, and videos will be judged by local panel of experts and may make it to Cable TV as part of a feature on Westfield. The Chamber office has all the rules for the contests.

The winners will receive

All Saints' Church sponsors annual antique show

Preparing for the annual antique show at All Saints' Church are, chairmen (from left to right) Karen Kenderdine, Lois Urbancik and Gretchen Atkins.

All Saints' Episcopal Church will hold its 29th Annual Antique Show and Sale on Friday, September 22 and Saturday, September 23 at the church on 559 Park Avenue, Scotch Plains. This year the show will feature two new events - Topiaries by Atack Flower Farm and antique appraisals by Anita Groshof of Ani'tiques at Stagehouse Village. For a small fee Ms. Groshof will appraise your family "treasures."

The show, with over 20 dealers, will feature quality antique jewelry, furniture, porcelain, linens and unusual Christmas ornaments. The new topiary display by Atack Farm will feature fresh herbal topiaries, dried flowers and wreaths. Shoppers can enjoy lunch or a lite dinner at the Calico Kitchen where homemade beef soup, quiche, salads, sandwiches and baked goods will be available for purchase.

Continued on page 16

FANWOOD JUNIOR WOMEN WILL HOLD FLEA MARKET

The Fanwood Jr. Woman's Club will be holding a Flea Market this Saturday, September 23rd from 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. at the Fanwood Train Station. All proceeds are to be used for charitable donations to community organizations. Space is still available and vendors may call 322-2614 for information.

WOMEN'S CLUB TO HOLD GIANT GARAGE SALE

On Thursday, September 21st and Friday, September 22nd, The Woman's Club of Fanwood is holding a Giant Garage Sale from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. The sale will take place at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Lindsay at 87 Cray Terrace, Fanwood. There will be many useful and unique items gathered from fifty homes of the club members who have contributed their best for this one big sale.

This is the first event held by The Woman's Club of Fanwood this year and proceeds will go to various local philanthropic projects sponsored by the club. The public is invited to come at 9 a.m. and look over the great variety of fascinating items for something they find useful, or just beautiful.

FREE RABIES CLINIC

The Mountainside Board of Health will conduct a Free Rabies Clinic from 7:00 - 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 10, 1989, which will be offered for the inoculation of both cats and dogs who are owned by residents of Mountainside, Fanwood, Garwood and Westfield.

The clinic will take place at the Mountainside Fire Station located on New Providence Road, Mountainside, N.J. No appointments are required.

SPORTS...

For all the up-to-the-minute football happenings, including the new lineup for the Jr. Raiders! See page 10

Did you know that Scotch Plains and Fanwood are being honored by the AAA for safety?

See page 3

RELIGIOUS...

Local Churches are all aglow with various celebrations See page 6 for all the details!