

SCOTCH PLAINS

THE TIMES

Serving Scotch Plains and Fanwood Since 1959

FANWOOD

VOLUME 35-NUMBER 40

OCTOBER 1, 1992

30 CENTS

See page 6

They need your ideas!

The Scotch Plains Clean Community Committee is sponsoring a Little Slogan Contest for the Scotch Plains Clean-Up Day. The selected slogan will be printed on T-shirts to be worn on clean-up day.

Gift certificates will be awarded for 1st and 2nd prize. The contest is limited to middle and high school students. Entries must be received by November 13, 1992.

Interested people must provide their name, school and slogan entry to the Slogan Contest, 440 William Street, Scotch Plains, NJ 07076. For further information call 322-6700, Ext. 243.

Monthly BP Clinic

The Township of Scotch Plains will hold the monthly Hypertension (High Blood Pressure) Screening Clinic on Thursday, October 8, 1992.

The Clinic will be held in the Scotch Plains Public Library Community Room from 4:00-7:00 pm and is free. The intent of the clinic is to identify new cases of High Blood Pressure. Those persons who are over the age of thirty and smoke or are overweight or have a family history of heart disease or diabetes and have not had their blood pressure checked recently are urged to attend.

Register to vote by Monday

The last day to register for voting to be eligible for the General Election is Monday, October 5th.

Hours are 9:00 am to 4:30 pm. Mondays thru Fridays. However, there will be extended hours in the Scotch Plains Clerk's Office. The hours will be from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm on October 1, 2, and 5th.

October 7, 1992

Volunteers to be honored at Mayors' Gala

Final plans are being made for the annual Mayors' Charity Gala scheduled for Friday, October 9, 8:30 p.m.-12:30 a.m. at Shackamaxon Country Club, Scotch Plains.

The committee is very pleased to announce that this year's "Volunteer of the Year" awards will be given to Mrs. Dianne Ledder and Mr. John V. Corona. These two outstanding citizens will be honored at the Gala along with past Mayors of Scotch Plains.

Mrs. Ledder is being recognized for her involvement with the League of Women Voters, the Scotch Plains-Fanwood YMCA, the Habitat for Humanity, is a member of the Recreation Commission, has served on the Scholarship Committee for the Township, and has devoted endless hours to the CROP, an organization that supplies food to the needy.

Mrs. Ledder is a member of the Watchung Ave. Presbyterian Church in No. Plainfield and sings in the choir. She teaches English as a second language at El Centro in Plainfield and has served as hostess to visiting students from Mexico, Italy, Spain and Ireland over the past few years.

Mr. Corona will be honored for his outstanding participation as a member of the Scotch Plains Golden Agers, the Catholic Golden Age, the Senior Citizens Advisory Committee, Knights of Columbus, the B.P.O. Elks #1585 and the Union County Ostomy Society.

In addition to the aforementioned activities, Mr. Corona is an active member and former President of the Holy Name Society of the Immaculate Heart of Mary R.C. Church and the Father Nelligan Council Knights of Columbus #5730. His involvement with the Handicapped Children's Committee of the Mountainside Elks has been instrumental in naming two area children as Poster Child for 1989-90 and 1992-93. His visits to veterans at Lyons Hospital brings much needed entertainment, food and gifts to the residents.

Scotch Plains Mayor Irene Schmidt, this year's
Please turn to page 11

Chavers' Wills named to Union County Commission

The Union County Commission on the Status of Women recently appointed Carrie Chavers' Wills of Scotch Plains as a member, for a term ending Dec. 31, 1994, announced Freeholder Casimir Kowalczyk, liaison to the commission.

"The Union County Commission on the status of Women was created 'to study the needs, capabilities, problems, interests and concerns of the county's women,' said Kowalczyk, 'and also to provide information to women regarding their 'legal rights, privileges, special needs and interests,' among other things."

For information on the commission, call 908-558-2576.

Rescue Squad celebrates Scotch Plains' Day

Come celebrate Scotch Plains Day with members of the Scotch Plains Rescue Squad on Saturday, October 10th. Members will be available to show the newest ambulance and various pieces of equipment used in daily service and care of the community.

Following the outdoor activities in the center of town, the squad will host an "Open House" from 11:30 am until 1:00 pm at its building at 1916 Bartle Avenue. Demonstrations will be given in CPR, splinting and the K.E.D. which is used to stabilize and extricate victims of car accidents. Tours of the newly renovated building will be given and scrapbooks containing the 55 year history of the squad will be open for viewing. Members will be available to answer any questions and light refreshments will be served.

The membership of the Scotch Plains Rescue Squad would like to express sincere appreciation to all residents of the community who have already contributed to the support of the squad through its annual fund drive. All other residents are encouraged to join the team and support YOUR local rescue squad. A team is only as good as its members - a well-trained team of dedicated volunteers and a dedicated, supportive community. Together we can make a difference in many lives!

Adult School offers variety of courses

Scotch Plains-Fanwood Adult School began many of its Tuesday and Wednesday classes this week, and Thursday courses start this evening. October 5 marks the inauguration of Monday classes, with registrations still being accepted for these offerings.

On tap this coming Monday will be courses in Beginning and Intermediate Social American Ballroom Dancing, Calligraphy, Flower Arranging, Piano Workshop, Introduction to Shorthand, Slenderizer for Ladies Only, and Understanding and Improving Your Home Landscape. Boating enthusiasts may sign up for the Boating, Sail and Power course with the Watchung Power Squadron at Monday's first session at 7 pm and receive all appropriate materials then.

The Adult School's Introduction to the Personal Computer course that started last evening is filled, but an additional section of the course has been added. Course 14A will be held on Tuesday evenings November 24, December 1 and December 8, and Marian Grandolfo-

Kalnicky will be the instructor.

Persons interested in participating in the above-mentioned courses and/or in courses or seminars occurring later in the Fall Term should register as soon as possible. They may continue to do so by mail or in-person at the Adult School Office, weekdays 1-4 pm. The Adult School Office is located at the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education Administrative Offices at the rear of Evergreen School, Evergreen Avenue and Cedar Street, Scotch Plains.