Johnny New Jersey artists: Bruce Springsteen at 908-298-3830, ext. 11.
Bon Jovi and Southside will enjoy hits from Johnny Cash, favorites of Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett and Nat King Cole. You must be 18 and older. This is a whole day event.

Rudolph Ozol
Rudolph Jacob Ozol, 96, of Lavallette, formerly of Union, died on Jan. 1. Born in Boston, Mass., Mr. Ozol was a full-time resident of Lavallette for two years. Previously, he resided in Union. He was a summer resident of Lavallette for 40 years. Mr. Ozol graduated from MIT in 1936, where he was captain of both the golf and fencing teams. Later, he became president of the METT Club of North Jersey. He pursued a doctorate degree in chemical engineering from New York University, but was interrupted by a World War II Army assignment. During the war, Mr. Ozol was assigned to the Army ordinance intelligence in Europe. He was honorably discharged with the rank of captain. Mr. Ozol worked at Esso Refineries, where he received several patents. In 1955, he started his own stock brokerage firm in Linden and retired in 1986. Mr. Ozol was a member of Salle Santelli Fencing Club in New York City, where he was coached by Georgio Santelli and the United States Olympic Fencing Team coach. He was recruited by the New York Athletic Club and was on its 1947 AAN National Championship Fencing Team. Mr. Ozol later judged collegiate fencing matches at Princeton University, Yale University, West Point, New York University and City College of New York.

Known for his long golf drive, he was a member of Suburban Golf Club in Union for more than 60 years. Mr. Ozol won the club’s championship in three different decades. For many years, he held the course record of 65. Mr. Ozol was a noted photographer and exhibited in national and international competitions. He also served as president of the New Jersey Federation of Camera Clubs. Mr. Ozol was a longtime member and elder of Townley Presbyterian Church in Union.

Surviving are his wife, 70 years, Ida Amelia Hammell Ozol; a son, James R.; a daughter, Barbara Labatt; 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The G. G. Woody Funeral Home, Linden, handled the arrangements.

Frank Wilverding
Frank H. Wilverding, 84, of Kenilworth died Jan. 6 in Overlook Hospital, Summit.

Born in Sugar Notch, Pa., Mr. Wilverding lived in Kenilworth for the past 52 years. He was a supervisor/radio technician at Roosevelt Hospital, New York City. Mr. Wilverding was a World War II Army veteran and served in the Asiatic-Pacific Theater.

He was a member of the American Legion Post 1000.

Surviving are a son, Frank; a daughter, Judy Colligan; a brother, Deanon Daniel, and two grandchildren.

The Dooley Funeral Home, Cranford, handled the arrangements.

OBITUARIES

Susanne Mueller
Susanne Mueller, 91, of Linden died Jan. 5 in the Barbara E. Cheung Memorial Hospice, Edison.

Born in Linden, Mrs. Mueller was a resident of Roselle before moving to Roselle 53 years ago. She was employed as the office manager at H.P. Van Dever Moving and Storage Co., a family-owned business, in Elizabeth for many years. Mrs. Van Dever was a communicant of St. Joseph the Carpenter Church, Roselle.

Surviving are a daughter, Millie Blue; a son, Robert S.; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Bessie Van Devere
Bessie Jean Van Devere, 84, of Roselle died Jan. 1 at home.

Born in Little Rock, Ark., Mrs. Van Devere lived in New York before moving to Roselle 53 years ago. She was employed as the office manager at H.P. Van Dever Moving and Storage Co., a family-owned business, in Elizabeth for many years. Mrs. Van Devere was a communicant of St. Joseph the Carpenter Church, Roselle.

Suriving are a daughter, Millie Blue; a son, Robert S.; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The G. G. Woody Funeral Home, Roselle, handled the arrangements.

The Petitti-Davis Funeral Home, Rahway, handled the arrangements.

John T. Gregorio Recreation Center at 908-474-8627 to view the website at www.linden-nj.org.

For information call Dennis Parves at 908-299-3830, ext. 11.

Donate your old car and help save animals.

The time is right to look for deals and good prices on dealer inventory. With prices so low, don’t trade in your older model, donate it to a worthy cause and help save the lives of needy animals in Linden.

Go to the All Star Pet Rescue website, click on the "Donate Your Car" icon and select "All Star Pet Rescue" as your charity of choice.

For information about the rescue, send an e-mail to AllStarPete.com or go to www.allstarpetfinder.com.

Adults: get in shape at Gregorio Center

The Department of Public Property and Community Services is offering to Linden adults a daily use of fully equipped exercise rooms located at John T. Gregorio Recreation Center, 330 Helen St. and the Linden Multi Purpose Center, 1025 John St., Linden.

The exercise rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, treadmills, step climbers, rowers, a four station universal and locker area with showers. There is a registration fee for the year. You must bring in proof of residency. It is free of charge to anyone older than 50. However, registration at the Recreation Center are Monday to Friday, from 7:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. For information call the center at 908-474-8627 or visit the website at www.linden-nj.org.

 Anyone with questions, registration for city’s annual flu shot clinic

The Linden Board of Health is currently registering Linden residents for its annual seasonal influenza immunization program. While no definite clinic dates have been set, residents should register for a "flu shot" by calling the Linden Board of Health Office at 908-474-8409.