Tee-Ball

The final week of T-Ball started off with the Blue Team hosting the Red Team. The Blue Team felt the itch of chicken pox making the rounds now, keeping Beth Tumolo, Andrew MacLeod and Kailin Spreitzer at home, but the rest of the team made up for their absence with extra spirit. Key hitting from Robbie Cardinale, John Haggan and Peter Shelus was highlighted by a first inning grand slam and third inning three-run homer from Justin Green, his best game of the season. Blue's solid defense was led by Andy Domingo, Kai Yu, Alison Wilks and David Correia.

The Red Team was led by Gerry Smith, Louis Zinman and Jamie Dougher with clutch RBI hitting. Offensive spark was also provided by Amit Shoor, David Jimenez, David Sigmon and Jennifer Curren. Jimmy Cooney, Scott Smith and Scott Garrity demonstrated superb defensive skills while Ariel Marin was strong on the bases.

Game two highlighted the Green Team hosting the Gold Team. The Gold Team concluded the season by only putting eight players on the field. The team was anchored offensively by Timmy Gander who had two doubles, Amy Mann and Evan Shea. Defensively, the Gold Team's standouts were Shawn O'Connor (who bounced back after having a hard grounder hit him in the face) and Robbie Bugg.

The Green Team took the field with nine players and all greatly contributing to the team's play. Adam Chinoy had his first homer of the year with some clever base running while Brian O'Neil slugged the ball, including a home run. David Bell cleared the bases with a grand slam and executed an unassisted force put out at home from his pitcher's position. Brian O'Neil caught two fly balls at shortstop, starting off a triple and a double play assisted by Eric Konzelman on both plays at second, while Patrick Meredith was on the end of the triple play at first. David Ferro had an unassisted force play at third base, while Michael Beckerman and Drew Kerken demonstrated excellent hustle in the outfield by always being in position and returning the ball quickly back to the in-
